2018 J. Lohr Estates Riverstone Chardonnay

WINEMAKER'S COMMENTS

The 2018 Riverstone Chardonnay exhibits youthful hues of light straw. The enticing aromas are reminiscent of white peach, apricot, ripe orange, and cocoa, and complemented by the palate flavors of citrus cream and nectarine. The rich texture and balance on the palate from aging sur lie gives way to flavors of vanilla, crème brûlée, and a touch of oak can be found on the long finish.

WINEMAKER'S COMMENTS

The 2017 J. Lohr Estates Los Osos Merlot is medium-dark in color with a mature red hue. WINEMAKER'S COMMENTS

Classic Cabernet Sauvignon, with its savory notes, are wrapped in the unctuous dark fruit character of Petite Sirah. Bright acidity and focused tannins strike the palate with juicy blackberry notes framed by a bouquet of hazelnut and toasted pastry. Firm and appetizing on the finish. Wines made passionately for your table

Embodying the flavorful essence of our estate vineyards in Monterey County and Paso Robles, wines from J. Lohr Estates have become benchmarks for their appellations. Each of our vineyards is planted to leverage the conditions that enable a particular varietal to thrive, resulting in rich, complex and character-filled flavors. J. Lohr Estates Riverstone Chardonnay excels in the deep, rocky soils of the Arroyo Seco appellation in Monterey County, and is joined by our Flume Crossing Sauvignon Blanc, Bay Mist White Riesling, and Falcon's Perch Pinot Noir. J. Lohr Estates Los Osos Merlot achieves a notably lavish and nuanced expression in Paso Robles. And while even the oaks in Paso Robles struggle to survive, these extreme temperature swings are perfect for our J. Lohr Estates Seven Oaks Cabernet Sauvignon.
